Milkshake: Rock Concert for Children!

Saturday, December 6:

1:00 PM-2:00 PM: Winter Crafts at the Library

2:00 PM: Concert at the Rose and Alfred Miniaci Theater

Milkshake is a band on a mission: to create great rock music for kids. Led by singer Lisa Mathews and guitarist Mikel Gehl, whose songs for grown-ups have been featured in movies and prime-time television, Milkshake has won over children without compromising song-craft, stagecraft or their authentic rock & roll spirit. Milkshake's music has appeared on Noggin, PBS Kids and Discovery Kids. With tuneful, memorable songs that evoke influences from Rodgers and Hammerstein to Lennon-McCartney to The White Stripes, Milkshake creates music that appeals to both kids and their parents.

Pick up FREE show tickets (while supplies last) starting November 17, 2014 at the 1st floor Public Library Services Reference Desk. Call 954-262-5477 for more information.

Floating Colors: Paper Marbling Workshop

Sunday, December 7: 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM (First Floor - Program Room #1017)
NSU professor Tennille Shuster, teaches you how to paint on water! Paper marbling is the practice of manipulating flating ink on the water's surface, an ancient art form with historic roots in Asia, India, the Middle East and Europe. We will view a demonstration of the traditional Japanese method, suminagashi, after which participants will experiment with their own shallow trays of water, choosing and mixing colorful inks to create patterns to transfer onto paper to create one-of-a-kind prints. Participants will design carefully with intention, and will also delight in the element of surprise as the ink drawings take on a life of their own in the water.
